

This form is to be used by registered psychologists who are applying for one of the following vocational scopes of practice.

The New Zealand Psychologists Board urges all psychologists to carefully consider the implications of holding a vocational scope of practice before making application. Psychologists are bound by their Code of Ethics to practise only in those areas in which they are demonstrably competent, and to maintain competence in their area(s) of practice.

DECLARATION MADE ON APPLICATION FOR A VOCATIONAL SCOPE OF PRACTICE

If the following declaration is made in New Zealand, it must be made before a person entitled under the Oaths and Declarations Act 1957 to take such declarations (e.g., a Justice of the Peace, Solicitor, Notary Public, Registrar or Deputy Registrar of the High Court or any District Council, authorised officer in the service of the Crown, or any member of Parliament). Please carefully consider the declaration before you sign it.

I SOLEMNLY AND SINCERELY DECLARE THAT:

1. All of the information provided with this application is true and correct in every particular and detail;
2. I will provide the Psychologists Board with any such further information as it may require;
3. I am fit for registration as defined under Section 16 of the Health Practitioners Competence Assurance Act 2003 and I know of no information that could cause the Psychologists Board not to be satisfied that I am of good character and reputation and am a fit and proper person to be registered;
4. I do not have a mental or physical condition that precludes me functioning as a safe and competent practitioner;
5. I believe I qualify for the scope of practice that I seek to be registered within, and that I am competent to practice within that scope of practice.
6. Having considered carefully the rights and responsibilities it will impose, I wish to formally apply for the (delete as required) CLINICAL PSYCHOLOGIST / COUNSELLING PSYCHOLOGIST / EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGIST / NEUROPSYCHOLOGIST vocational scope of practice, and have appended hereto the required evidence of my competence in this area of practice. I authorise the Psychologists Board to contact my psychology supervisor.
