Conflicts of Interest

As part of the appointment process, any prospective members of the PSAG must disclose conflicts of interest relating to the PSAG and/or Scopes of Practice review.

Members of the PSAG who have a potential or real conflict of interest relating to the PSAG and/or Scopes of Practice review more generally, will advise the PSAG Chairperson and decisions will be made about whether the person can continue, or ought to be removed. In the event that the Chairperson and PSAG cannot resolve the conflict, the Board will decide whether the member ought to remain as part of the PSAG.

Dispute Resolution

Should a dispute occur, the Chair/Co-chair and group will work with the secretariat and Board to resolve the conflict.

If there are any concerns, members should raise them:

With the Chair of the group if concerns are about other members; or

With the NZPB CE if concerns are about the Chair of the PSAG.

Key Relationships

The PSAG will have a working relationship with the NZPB project team, secretariat, Board and the Psychology Profession Advisory Forum (PPAF). It will report to the Board and advise PPAF. It is expected that the PSAG engage in this process in good faith and champion the process with stakeholders.

Invited Experts and Observers

The Chair(s) of the PSAG may invite additional ad hoc attendees to meetings. These invitees could be any person(s) whose qualifications or experience would be of assistance to the PSAG in its role when considering a particular matter. Every person invited in this way will be entitled to take part in the discussions of the meeting in relation to that matter but will not take part in the provision of advice to the Board. Invited experts and observers are not eligible for sitting fees but, with the prior approval of the Secretariat, may have travel and other expenses reimbursed.

Remuneration

PSAG members will be paid in accordance with the NZPBs Allowances Policy: a maximum daily meeting allowance of $99.00 per hour for attending PSAG meetings plus the current IRD vehicle allowance of 95c per km. This remuneration will be made provided the recipient is not otherwise remunerated for their attendance by their relevant organisation. Any required air travel will be organised and provided by NZPB with meals, taxis and other minor incidentals also being covered by NZPB

Confidentiality

The work of the PSAG is confidential, unless otherwise agreed by the Chairperson of the NZPB as appropriate. Members of the PSAG will maintain this confidence and will not disclose information about the operations of the PSAG to any person without the above agreement.
