NEW ZEALAND PSYCHOLOGISTS BOARD

ACCREDITATION DECISION:

UNIVERSITY OF AUCKLAND'S DOCTOR OF CLINICAL PSYCHOLOGY & POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN CLINICAL PSYCHOLOGY

Introduction:

It is a function of the New Zealand Psychologists Board to prescribe the qualifications required for scopes of practice within the profession, and, for that purpose, to accredit and monitor educational institutions and degrees, courses of studies, or programmes [refer s 118(a) of the Health Practitioners Competence Assurance Act 2003]. On 2 November 2011, the Board delegated its powers under section 118(a) of the Act to accredit educational institutions and degrees, courses of studies, or programmes to the Accreditation Committee. Applications for accreditation are assessed with reference to the relevant sections of the Board's prescribed Standards and Procedures for the Accreditation of Qualifications Leading to Registration as a Psychologist in New Zealand document (current version).

Date of Application:

The University of Auckland lodged an application for re-accreditation of their Doctor of Clinical Psychology (DClinPsych) and the Post Graduate Diploma in Clinical Psychology (PGDipClinPsych) training programmes with the Board on 4 September 2017.

Dates of Site Visit:

The site visit was conducted on 16-17th May 2018.

Date of Board Decision:

18th March 2020

Decision:

That the Accreditation Committee (operating under delegation);

- Grant Auckland University's DClinPsych and PGDipClinPsych courses of study accreditation in reference to the Clinical Psychologist scope of practice for an initial period of three years to 18 August 2021, but extendable to seven years contingent on their first routine monitoring report due by 1st November 2020 outlining;
  - Clear progress on providing students with a safe channel through which they can make suggestions about the programme. This applies to both Māori & non-Māori students.
  - That an external academic examiner has been added to final examination panels.
  - Steps taken to provide adequate support (pastoral, supervisory & teaching) to the large number of Māori students in the programme.

Accreditation current until:

~~18 August 2021~~

On behalf of the Accreditation Committee,

Ann Connell, Committee Chair
20 March 2020

Update:

On 14th December 2020, the Accreditation Committee (under delegation) resolved to extend the accreditation of the University of Auckland's DClinPsych and PGDipClinPsych courses of study to 18 August 2025.

Accreditation current until:

18 August 2025<sup>1</sup>

On behalf of the Accreditation Committee,

Elliot Bell, Committee Chair
28 January 2021

Update:

At its meeting on 19th May 2025, the Accreditation Committee resolved to extend the accreditation of the University of Auckland's DClinPsych and PGDipClinPsych courses of study to 18 August 2027<sup>1</sup>.

This will allow the Board to ensure a full accreditation process has been completed and that the training programme is still accredited to continue teaching the interns.
