NEW ZEALAND PSYCHOLOGISTS BOARD

ACCREDITATION REPORT: THE UNIVERSITY OF CANTERBURY'S POST GRADUATE DIPLOMA IN ORGANISATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY (PGDipOrgPsyc)

Introduction

It is a function of the New Zealand Psychologists Board to prescribe the qualifications required for scopes of practice within the profession, and, for that purpose, to accredit and monitor educational institutions and degrees, courses of studies, or programmes [refer s 118(a) of the Health Practitioners Competence Assurance Act 2003]. On 2 November 2011 the Board delegated its powers under section 118(a) of the Act to accredit educational institutions and degrees, courses of studies, or programmes to the Accreditation Committee. Applications for accreditation are assessed with reference to the relevant sections of the Board's prescribed Standards and Procedures for the Accreditation of Qualifications Leading to Registration as a Psychologist in New Zealand [the Standards] document (current version).

Date of Application:

The University of Canterbury lodged an expression of interest in gaining accreditation of a new programme, the Post Graduate Diploma in Organisational Psychology (PGDipOrgPsyc), in January 2023, with a view to graduates being eligible to register in the Psychologist scope of practice. The Accreditation Committee considered the initial submission and invited the University of Canterbury to submit a full accreditation application, initially for consideration for provisional accreditation. The University of Canterbury's application was received in April 2023.

Date of Decision:

8 May 2023

Decision:

The University of Canterbury's PGDipOrgPsyc course of study has been granted provisional accreditation with graduates eligible to apply for registration in the Psychologist scope of practice. In accordance with the Standards, a full accreditation assessment, including a site visit by a Board-appointed Assessment Team, will occur once the first cohort of students is eligible for graduation, anticipated to be in January 2026.

Provisional Accreditation current until:

31 May 2026.¹

On behalf of the Accreditation Committee,

¹ The Board reserves the right to revisit a course granted provisional accreditation subject to periodic reporting requirements.

Update:

At its meeting of the 15 June 2026, the Accreditation Committee confirmed a circular resolution to extend the provisional accreditation of the Post Graduate Diploma in Organisational Psychology training programme delivered by the University of Canterbury until 31 March 2027.

This allows the Board to ensure that the full accreditation process has been completed and that in the meantime the training programme is still accredited to continue teaching interns.
